

COACHES CODE OF CONDUCT

I, _____ pledge to follow the Oklahoma Invitational Tournament Code of Conduct by providing a positive environment while participating. To adhere to the grade appropriate rules set forth and administer them with professionalism and in the best interests of the children involved.

Code of Conduct:

1. To place the physical, emotional and personal well being of each player above everything.
2. To lead by example in demonstrating sportsmanship and fairness to all players and ensuring communication to all parties including players, parents, referees, coaches, league directors, and administrators is done in a respectful manner.
3. To perform my duties without pressure from parents and take full responsibility of the actions that my parents and/or spectators of my team may behave that would be consider not Christ-like or un-sportsmanship towards the referees, coaches, players and parents from the opposing teams as well as the staff of Christian Basketball Youth Association (CBYA) and Santa Fe Family Life Center.
4. Prior to the beginning of the game introducing myself to the referee's so they are aware I am the Head Coach. I understand the head coach is the only person on the bench that can call time out and there can only be one coach standing in the coach's box at a time.
5. To continually build a positive environment for players, parents, coaches, referees, and fans regardless of social stature by keeping "team spirit" as a focus for the growth and development of each player, creating "wholeness of being", patience, humility and charity.
