

PARENTS CODE OF CONDUCT

I pledge to follow the Christian Basketball Youth Association (CBYA) Code of Conduct during the Oklahoma Invitational Tournament of 2022 and to provide a positive environment to all youth participating in this tournament sponsored by the Christian Basketball Youth Association (CBYA)

Code of Conduct:

1. To lead by example in demonstrating sportsmanship and fairness to all players and ensuring communication to all parties including players, parents, referees, coaches, league directors, and administrators is done in a Christ-like manner.
2. I will not yell at or degrade my team or the other team's players, coaches, fans or officials.
3. I will not place emotional and physical well being of my child ahead of my personal desire to win.
4. I will support coaches and officials working with my child, in order to encourage a positive and enjoyable experience for all.
5. I will demand a sports environment for my child that is free from drugs, tobacco and alcohol and will refrain from their use at all youth sports events while remembering that the game is for youth not adults and do my very best to make youth sports fun for my child.
6. I will ask my child to treat other players, coaches, fans and officials with respect regardless of race, sex, creed, or ability.
7. I understand that if I do not conduct myself in a positive and supportive manner that the Tournament Director may terminate my involvement and or my child's involvement as necessary in the Oklahoma Invitational Tournament
8. To continually build a positive environment for players, parents, coaches, referees, and fans regardless of social stature by keeping "team spirit" as a focus for the growth and development of each player, creating "wholeness of being", patience, humility and charity.
